Man at Bayou Mills Attempts Suicide But Without Success.

New Bank at Salem Started Up This Morning—Zinc Discovered in Town.

BIG SEPARATOR INSPECTED

A man named McCandless of Bayou Mills, Livingston county, according to reports brought down on the packet this morning, attempted suicide a day or two ago by taking a whole bottle of morphine. He took too much and was finally brought around, now being out of danger. No cause is assigned.

There is great excitement in Salem, Livingston county, over the discovery of fine paying zinc ore in the midst of the city, one rich vein, according to reports, being found yesterday on property of Thomas Lowry. An assay was made yesterday, showing the ore to be very rich.

Today the new bank at Salem, Livingston county, began business, and the new building will be completed by the 10th of this month. That part of the county is rapidly filling up and becoming of great commercial importance.

There is now within two miles of Salem a separating plant said to have cost $100,000, and the inventor of the separator, Mr. T. Garth Hearne of Wheeling, W. Va., is now there inspecting it. He is a young man, but an expert in mining machinery, and thinks there is a bright future for Livingston county.

MITCHELL BUOYANT.

BELIEF GROWING AT WILKESBARRE THAT A CRISIS IS NEAR AT HAND.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 1.—President Mitchell, and his advisors, District President Nicholls, Fahy and Duffy, were in conference at strike headquarters. Nothing could be learned as to the deliberations and Mr. Mitchell was as reticent as ever regarding his visit to Philadelphia. The leader of the miners, however, appeared to be in buoyant spirits and the belief is growing that a crisis of some kind is near at hand.

They have filed a petition with the mayor and city council asking permission to cross Georgia street with additional tracks in order to reach the site of the proposed depot on the east side of Main street, between Georgia and Webster street.

SNEAK THIEF CAUGHT

Man Who Robbed Tailor Shops Detected While Trying to Sell Goods

He Gives the Name of Riley—Believed to Be a Crook Wanted Elsewhere.

NEWS OF THE POLICE COURT

The sneak thief who broke into J. Leslie Thompson's and Louis Bodenheimer's tailoring establishments, and Gouirieux's saloon within the past few nights was captured last night by Captain Henry Bailey, and gave the name of "James Riley."

The officer was notified that the man had attempted to sell some clothing at D. J. Levy's. When taken into custody near the establishment on Second street the man claimed the clothing had been given him to sell by another man, and wanted to go and get him, but Captain Bailey was not to be tricked in that way.

The man proved to be a boarder at the St. Nicholas hotel, on South Third, where he had been two or three days. He registered as "Scanlan, U. S. A." and when his room was searched the clothing stolen from Bodenheimer's and part of that stolen from Thompson's, was found in the room, and also one bottle of whiskey stolen from Gouirieux's saloon. The man declined to talk, but is evidently a slick thief, and had something on for last night, as he had already been to another second hand store and asked if they didn't want to buy some silks and satins. He had probably picked out some other place to rob.

This morning three warrants were issued against him for house-breaking, and he was remanded to jail to await trial tomorrow morning. He is a man about 35 years old, with grey hair and moustache, and is rather a tough looking customer.

Chief Collins thinks that Riley is an all round crook, and that he is the same man sent over the road from Paducah fifteen or sixteen years ago for murderously assaulting a man named Will Green. Riley is one of the sullen sort, and will not talk to Chief Collins on any subject.

The evidence in the case against Louis Bufort, colored, for robbery, was partially heard and the case was left open.

Robert Porter, colored, was charged with maliciously assaulting Bishop McDonald, also a rouser on the Buttrifft, last night. The trouble came up over Porter's trying to wake the other man up to help unload the boat. The felony warrant was dismissed and the defendant was fined $20 and costs for a breach of the peace.

The breach of the peace case against Dona Beale was dismissed.

Andy Hayden, colored, for stealing coal from a N., C. and St. L. car, was fined $10 and costs. The car had been unloaded and he was only picking up lumps from the floor.

Ess Ladd, white, and William Everett, colored, arrested as suspects, were released and ordered to get out of town by noon.

Joe Bennett, white, charged with selling 347 bushels of wheat and 111 sacks belonging to a man named Mitchell, was held to answer on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses and went to jail in default of a $300 bond. He said he noticed the wheat on the river bank and being hungry sold it to Hawkins and Co. for $6.

A case against Will Taylor, colored, for malicious assault, was continued until Friday.

The case against Robert Caldwell and George Boaz, colored for a breach of the peace was continued.

TO TRY BANKRUPTCY CASE.

Referee E. W. Bagby will go to Mayfield this evening to try the bankruptcy case of Spaulding and Merritt, the merchants of Fancy Farm who recently went into bankruptcy. Friday he goes to Benton to try a case.

Miss Aline Bagby leaves the 15th for New York to study for the stage.

L. & N. Deal Now Complete.

New York, Oct. 1.—J. P. Morgan and Co. announced officially last night that that firm had exercised the option on the 204,000 shares of Louisville and Nashville stock, and that the Atlantic Coast line had thereby acquired control of the Louisville and Nashville. The control it was explained, was acquired by the purchase through the Morgan syndicate of 306, 000 shares held under option and 102,000 shares which the firm had previously acquired for cash.

The underwriting syndicate stands ready to supply $35,000,000, in which to guarantee the success of the plan. It was said that this amount had been over-subscribed by $14,000,000. J. P. Morgan and Co. will be the managers of the syndicate, in return for which they will receive $1,000,000.

Sebree Almost Wiped Out.

Sebree, Ky., Oct. 1.—Fire broke out this morning at 3 o'clock in the business part of town and burned itself out. Much property was destroyed, and the town has suffered a great loss. It is estimated that the damage expressed in figures will be $75,000, covered with partial insurance. Some of the merchants have already announced that they will rebuild.

The Conference Now Over.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The president, Secretaries Moody and Root, Attorney General Knox and Postmaster General Payne resumed their conference on the coal strike this morning, and the meeting closed before noon. By the direction of the president an official statement will be given out this afternoon.

THE STAMP DEPUTY'S REPORT.

Mr. Louis Bebout, the stamp deputy, reports collections for the past month amounting to $5,536.94 with whiskey stamps issued for 1105 barrels of whiskey.

BRITAIN AND MORGAN

A DEAL IS ANNOUNCED RELATIVE TO SHIP LINES.

London, Oct. 1.—His majesty's government is making terms with J. Pierpont Morgan.

Thus is the unexpected condition of affairs in the steamship world revealed by Gerald Balfour, president of the board of trade at Sheffield.

It is not likely that the British public will relish the idea of Britannia, "the pride of the ocean," being reduced to making terms for the possession of the Atlantic with the American plutocrat, but it was probably only the safe course for the British government to pursue. It is realized that Mr. Morgan is no more to be flouted than the Atlantic itself.

While the Cunard company, by means of a loan and subsidy, is put in a position to fight for its share of the business of the North Atlantic, the government has also entered into an agreement with Mr. Morgan by which for 20 years British ships in the combination will continue to fly the British flag, be manned by a given proportion of British men, and will be available on an emergency for the British government, while at least half of the future orders of the syndicate shall go to British yards.

CONCLUDING ARGUMENT MADE.

BODIES IDENTIFIED

Watches Establish the Identity of Pittsburgh Victims.

Undertakers Left This Morning for the Wreck to Take Charge of the Remains.

MAY BE BROUGHT TO THE CITY

Mr. R. C. Benner, of the city, who received instructions by wire yesterday from Tideoute, Pa., to take charge of the bodies of Messrs. L. L. Hunter and L. B. Magill, found yesterday at the Pittsburgh wreck, left this morning on the J. B. Richardson, accompanied by Undertakers Fred Roth and Clifford Wilson, for the wreck, and will take charge and probably bring the remains to the city to be shipped from here to the home of the unfortunate men.

Mr. Benner last night chartered a gasoline boat and intended to leave on it, but a bolt in the machinery broke just before it was ready to start, and he had to wait for the Cairo packet this morning.

In a conversation last night over the telephone with a man in Cairo, Mr. Benner was informed that the two bodies, which were among the last of those missing, were found in the hull of the boat, under an accumulation of rubbish.

When the boat caught fire and was run into bank, she broke in two and the stern portion of the hull sank in deep water, and for this reason could never be well searched. The present low stage of water enabled them to get down into it and it was there that the remains, badly decomposed, were found.

Identification was established by means of the watches the two men wore, the numbers in which show plainly that they are those of the missing men. A knife found in a pocket of the clothing also contains the name and address of one of the men.

It is not known what will be done with the remains, nor whether they are still at the wreck, or have been removed, but the bodies will probably be brought here tonight and prepared for shipment to Tideoute, the home of the two wealthy men.

As stated yesterday, these two men had been sought for many weeks by relatives and a brother of Mr. Magill spent about ten weeks in the vicinity of the wreck, chartering boats and expending money without stint in his efforts to find the remains. A reward of $200 each was offered, and will be paid to the finder of the bodies, who is understood to be a man named McCann.

The deceased were both very wealthy, and were making a pleasure trip on the Pittsburgh when she was burned, and they with 75 or more others, were lost. They stopped off at Paducah while the boat was at the wharf and met their friend, Mr. Benner, who left today to take charge of their remains.

Both men were heavily insured, but it is understood both claims have been paid without protest. Relatives are expected from Tideoute this evening or tomorrow.

A COMPROMISE PROBABLE.

THE TEMPLE CASE WILL PROBABLY NOT BE APPEALED.

The James Temple right of way case will be settled without appeal.

Temple was sued by the C. & St. Louis and N. O. railroad for a right of way through his lands on the Cairo division. The case was tried and the jury awarded Temple $3,300 and he promptly set about to appeal the same. The railroad attorneys however offered a compromise and agreed to pay $3,500 which will be accepted, it is said.

AUDIENCE WELL PLEASED.

There was a large and well pleased crowd at The Kentucky last night to witness the Home of the Friendless entertainment, "A Dream of Fair Women," which gave satisfaction. A portion of the proceeds go to the Home.

THE TOBACCO NEWS

Louisville Warehouse Company Wants to Take in Several More.

The Object of the Big Deal Is to Secure Harmony Among the Dealers.

OF INTEREST IN PADUCAH

The Louisville Tobacco warehouse company has submitted to its stockholders a proposition for the purchase of seven more warehouses. If two-thirds of the present stock is voted in favor of the plan the seven warehouses will be bought with a new issue of the common stock of the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse company.

Already 5,000 shares, representing $500,000 of the capitalization of $1,350,000 have been voted for it and the necessary two-thirds will likely be cast.

The transaction is viewed by President Barnard, of the Louisville Warehouse company as good as closed. Owners of the seven warehouses have set a price upon their business and good will and their propositions have been accepted, conditioned upon the approval of the stockholders of the company. The warehouses to be taken over are Rice and Turner, the People's, the Kentucky, the Stone, the Buckner, the Grinter and the Henry. The Pickett warehouse is not included, though it is claimed its relations with the big company will be amicable. The warehouses to be acquired under the agreement will be managed as at present. The purchase will be equivalent to 35,000 hogheads of tobacco handled by the seven houses each year.

The object in purchasing the warehouses is to bring them into working harmony with the combine, which they have heretofore been fighting.

A dispatch from Clarksville, Tenn., says: "Several changes will take place in the local tobacco trade November 1. L. G. Wood, of the warehouse firm of Wood and Smith, will retire on account of ill health, and his former partner, T. P. Smith, will have an interest with C. J. Smith in the Red River warehouse. W. H. Rudolph, who has been with C. J. Smith at the Red River house, will retire. Kendrick and Runyon, who will do a loose business, will move to the Queen City warehouse, vacated by Wood and Smith. Other changes, not yet made public, are expected.

The tobacco market experienced no change this week from that of last and the prices remained about the same. Lugs brought from 5 to 5 1-2 cents and common to medium leaf sold from $5.75 to $7. The offerings were light and the buyers few.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED

JACKSON DRUGGIST SUES ALL OTHER FIRMS FOR INJURING HIS BUSINESS.

Jackson, Tenn., Oct. 1.—A sensation was caused in commercial circles when A. P. Gargaro and wife, proprietors of a local drug store, brought suit for $25,000 damage against all the other drug stores in Jackson, and separate suits for $10,000 damages against James and Nelson and Ward and Best. The papers have not yet been prepared, but it is understood that the defendants are charged with conspiring together to injure the business of plaintiffs. It is understood by attorneys that the National Wholesale and Retail Druggists' Association will be involved, it being alleged that the association is a trust, or combination, formed to uphold prices. Among the attorneys for the plaintiff is former Judge W. C. Cadwell of the state supreme court.

CLAIM AGAINST A STEAMER.

Louis Guinn, colored, who brought a claim against the steamer Wilford amounting to $14.50, was awarded $14 this morning by Commissioner Gardner. Guinn claimed he went to work for $1.50 a day and the boat people claim they agreed to pay only $1. They had paid him 50 cents on his time and the commissioner allowed the remainder.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

THAT LAEVISON'S PALE ALE AND IRON-TONE ARE NON-INTOXICATING.

Another victory has been scored by the A. M. Laevison bottling works regarding their mild drinks. Mr. P. Melton, the well known merchant of Mayfield, Ky., who has been handling "Iron-Tone" and "Pale Ale," manufactured by A. M. Laevison and Co., was tried before Judge Webb, of Mayfield, day before yesterday on the charge of dispensing intoxicating liquors in violation of the local option law. After hearing the evidence and testing the "Pale Ale" and "Iron-Tone," Judge Webb immediately dismissed the case, and informed Mr. Melton the drinks were non-intoxicating and he could sell them at his pleasure. This is further conclusive proof added to the heretofore favorably rendered decisions holding Laevison's drinks non-intoxicating.

GREAT PROSPERITY

Commercial Conditions in This Country are Very Good.

British Interests Do Not Fear Competition in the Iron and Steel Industry.

SOUTH VERY PROSPEROUS

Commercial conditions in the United States are now the subject of very close attention by the financial and commercial journals of Europe. A copy of the London "Financier," just received by the treasury bureau of statistics, discusses in great detail commercial and manufacturing conditions in the United States and their bearing upon the manufacturers and commerce of Europe, and especially of Great Britain. Commenting upon the reduction in exports during the last fiscal year, it says:

"This large decrease is chiefly owing to the partial failure of the Indian corn crop last year, and partly owing to the decrease in the value of iron and steel goods exported. The exports of all kinds of iron and steel, with the exception of iron ore, amounted last year to $117,319,320. This last year, 1902, they amounted to only $98,552,562, showing a falling off of $18,766,758.

Notwithstanding the enormous demand for iron and steel prices have been kept at a reasonable level. This has been largely due to the United States Steel corporation, who firmly refused to raise their prices unduly. This policy has, doubtless, caused a prolongation of the period of great activity, by encouraging greater consumption. As long as the United States continues in its present prosperous condition, absorbing all it can produce in the way of iron and steel, British manufacturers need not fear serious competition. But this prosperity cannot last indefinitely. The home demand must fall off to a greater or lesser extent when, owing to the present increase of output all over the country, we shall probably see an overproduction exceeding anything hitherto experienced. Preparations are being made to meet this contingency, so that when supply greatly exceeds demand in America everything will be in readiness to carry the surplus to Europe and other countries more economically than ever before. British manufacturers should, therefore, put their houses in order meanwhile.

"While the whole country is in a condition of great prosperity, perhaps it is more noticeable, comparatively speaking, in the south than in any other part. Not that the southern states are really more prosperous than the northern, but the contrast is so much greater than what was a few years ago. The increase in exports and imports in the principal southern ports in the last two years is a reflection of the growth in commerce and trade. Railway traveling has been very much improved and the railway companies are assisting the farmers and manufacturers, knowing that their profits depend upon the resources of the south and as a consequence no effort is being spared to encourage the development of the industries along the various lines. The development of the oil industry has done wonders for some of the states. Not only has it brought immense sums of money but the low cost of oil has caused it to be used as fuel on steamships, locomotives, etc., reducing costs of manufacture and transport to no inconsiderable extent.

Mercury and Potash

ONLY SERVE AS A MASK FOR CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

They hide its repulsive form, and this serpent disease, stupefied by these drugs, lies dormant until the effects have worn off or treatment is discontinued, when it breaks down the mask and becomes as full of life and venom as ever. Mercury and Potash may dry up the sores and eruptions, but at the same time they drive the poison back into the blood and system, where it feeds upon the tender tissues, membranes and nerves, finally breaking out in most disgusting sores and even destroying the flesh and bones.

Mercury and Potash cannot accomplish a radical and permanent cure. They have a palliative but not curative effect upon this treacherous snake-like disease. These drugs produce mercurial Rheumatism, destroy the teeth and corrode the membranes of the stomach and bowels, causing inflammation and dyspepsia, nervousness and general derangement of the system.

S. S. S. is a Specific for Contagious Blood Poison, and the only antidote for the peculiar virus that spreads so quickly throughout the system, corrupting the blood and infecting every organ and fibre of the body.

S. S. S. destroys the serpent, and eliminates every atom of poison from the blood, it makes a thorough and radical cure of the disease, and at the same time builds up the general health. S. S. S. contains no minerals of any kind, but is a purely vegetable remedy and we offer $1,000 for proof to the contrary.

Write us about your case and our physicians will cheerfully advise without charge. Our home treatment book will be sent free to all who desire it.

A NEW BOAT.

CAPT. HENRY LEYHE TO HAVE ONE BUILT AT JEFFERSONVILLE.

Captain Henry Leyhe, general manager of the Eagle Packet company, has announced at St. Louis that his company had decided to build a large passenger steamer during the winter. He said that he had been expecting Captain Ed Howard of Jeffersonville, Ind., the well known boat builder, for several days, to make estimates on the cost of the steamer, which is to be a magnificent sidewheel boat, with larger passenger accommodations than any of the other boats of the line. It is to be completed by next spring, and will be built with a view to handling some of the world's fair traffic. Captain Leyhe expects a good passenger business next year, as well as during the world's fair season, but refuses to say in what trade the boat will run when she is finished. This will probably be the first boat to be built for the world's fair patronage.

JEWISH NEW YEAR.

BEGINNING OF THE YEAR 5663
ACCORDING TO HEBREW
CALENDAR.

Today is the Jewish New Year's day. According to the Hebrew calendar it is the first day of the year 5663. All the Jewish churches will observe the event with appropriate religious rites. The new year comes in at sunset.

New Year's day is known to the Jews as Rosh Hoshanah, the two Hebrew words signifying "head of the year." It is also known by the biblical terms "The day of blowing the trumpet" and the "Day of Memorial." Ten days from the New Year is Yom Kippur, the solemn day of atonement. This is the most impressive occasion in the Jewish calendar. The pious Jews fast from sunset to sunset.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

HON. P. H. DARBY, of Caldwell, for Court of Appeals.

HON. C. H. LINN, of Lyon, for Congress

DAILY THOUGHT.

Money is a tool, and is good or evil as men use it for good or evil ends.—Outlook.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Thursday.

WHAT WE ARE FOR.

The ticket nominated by the Republicans of Paducah yesterday is one that no public spirited citizen need have any hesitancy in supporting. It is composed of good substantial business men who have the city's interests at heart at all times, irrespective of politics. The gentlemen's position in the community is one of confidence and respect and one that insures the people good public service should they choose to intrust to them municipal affairs so far as regulated by the various offices for which they have nominated.

The platform adopted by the Republicans is diametrically opposed to the past official acts of the Democrats. It charges the Democrats, who have had absolute control of the city government for the past five or six years, with creating unnecessary offices and filling them with politicians, some of whom are totally unfitted for public service. The salaries of most of all of the offices have been increased since last December and some of them illegally. The city has found itself tax-ridden and practically bankrupt with a larger load than ever to carry in increased salaries and new offices. The people are doubtless not unmindful of the fact that over $150,000 has been appropriated to run this government for seven months, when not that much, in past years, was necessary to run it for a whole year. That the tax rate is the largest ever known, and the city has had to borrow $40,000 since last December to keep up, and it is reported that by the next meeting of the municipal boards will be unable to pay her bills. All this is a result of past extravagance. It is not necessarily a result of Democracy, but simply of the incompetency and extravagance of the men put in office by the Democrats because they were Democrats, and for no other earthly reason.

The Republican platform charges that the streets and alleys are in a bad condition, which is too evident to justify argument. There has been no good gravel placed on them for several years, and until there is we cannot expect to have good streets. And until we get the city free from the grafters, some of whom deal in gravel, there is no prospect of ever getting good gravel, or consequently of having good streets.

In short the money has been collected and wasted, and there is nothing to show for it. An effort has been made to repudiate the city's honest debts, and after months of hard work to advance Paducah to the second class, one faction made an effort to force her back, for political purposes solely, it is claimed.

A great many other things detrimental to the city and the people have been exposed from time to time, and it is unnecessary to enumerate them now, but in view of all that is known about municipal government in Paducah for the past five years, it ought to be plain by this time that the plank in yesterday's platform demanding that the affairs of our city be conducted in an honest and economical manner, with a view to giving protection to life and property and guaranteeing against unusual, unnecessary and oppressive taxation, is a good one, and that to believe, with the Republicans, that our city be progressive and kept in her proper position among cities of the state, and permanent improvements be made that will keep us abreast of the times, is to believe and advocate what is for the best interests of the city and her people, and is espousing a policy that either the Democrats oppose or have never been able, after years of trial, to carry out.

The gentlemen yesterday honored by the unanimous indorsement of a Republican convention for city offices are good men, and if there is any reason they cannot accept, other good men will be found to take their places. It is hoped, however, that all will remain. Paducah needs the services of such good men, and if good men will not allow themselves to be voted for, bad men will inevitably be elected.

It appears from some of the Democratic papers that the Democrats are endeavoring to organize the negroes to vote the Democratic ticket in Paducah. While there is nothing in the report that the negroes will ever vote the Democratic ticket, such publications show how anxious the Democrats are to have the negroes vote with them, if they only would.

Mayor Yeiser is thinking of waiting until after the Democratic primary October 8 and appointing three of the nominees for aldermen to fill the three vacancies on the board, and thus allow them to serve a short time before the people give them what is coming to them in November.

The Republicans solicit a comparison of their ticket with that of the opposition, no matter which of the candidates the latter may select.

The Republican convention yesterday was orderly and harmonious, as will be attested by all those in attendance.

Y. M. C. A. CLASSES.
MUCH ENTHUSIASM BEING SHOWN IN ATHLETICS.
The ladies of the city are taking a great interest in the gymnasium work of the Y. M. C. A., and the first class met yesterday morning and decided to have class days on Mondays and Thursdays at 10 o'clock in the morning. The second class will meet Friday morning to arrange for its class day. The big class of fifty was divided in order to secure better advantages in drill work.

About fifteen members of the High school want to take a course in physical culture at the Y. M. C. A., and have asked that they be accepted as a class and a regular class set aside for them. This is under consideration, but the class day will probably interfere with their school work, as the hour will have to be fixed at 10 in the morning. Nothing definite has been decided yet.

NOW IN FLORIDA.
Mr. Will P. Hoffman, formerly of the city with the Clark Tobacco factory at Fifth and Clay street, is now in Sanford, Florida, on the Sanford Chronicle. He has many friends here who will be pleased to learn that he has secured such a good position. He left Paducah early in the summer.

IN THE SCHOOLS

An Effort Will be Made to Get Along Without New Teachers.

Physical Culture to Be Introduced in the Schools Shortly.

Superintendent Hatfield, of the public schools, said this morning in regard to the report that he would recommend three new teachers to take charge of the overflow from the primary grades: "It is true we have an overflow in the primary grades, but will try to take care of the pupils without any additions in the way of new teachers. The members of the board have been greatly harassed since the report was published and have been constantly interviewed by teachers who wanted to secure positions and who desired the members' vote."

Two extra teachers were provided for at the beginning as the board had foreseen these conditions and it is safe to say that the overflow will be easily cared for.

This week Superintendent Hatfield is holding his regular grade meetings, meetings of the teachers of grades to compare the work and note the progress made. These meetings are held regularly and every teacher knows the progress made by the other.

Prof. Hatfield further stated that there would be a regular light course of physical culture placed in the schools and that the pupils need not adopt any fad in this line by taking a regular course in any gymnasium. Several members of the High school have expressed their intention to take a course in physical culture in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, but Prof. Hatfield says that the course placed in the schools, the exercises to be gone through twice each day, is doing very well and will be as much as could be desired. When the piano is secured then the exercises will be accompanied by music which will make the course more pleasant.

COMPLIMENTED.

MR. CHARLES EARHART'S PICTURE IN A BOSTON INSURANCE JOURNAL.

Mr. Charles Earhart, the well known insurance man, has received a copy of the Insurance Topics, of Boston, Mass., containing a surprise in the shape of an excellent half-tone picture of himself and the following notice:

TO REFORM SCHOOL.

TWO MORE VACANCIES TO BE FILLED BY PADUCAH BOYS.

Judge D. L. Sanders of the police court this morning received a letter from Superintendent Dole of the reform school of Lexington stating that two boys could be received from Paducah. Arrangements will be made at once to take there Willie Forrest, the boy arrested here several days ago for stealing from Mr. Pat Lally's, and a grand nephew of the late General Forrest, and a boy named Huff, who has been in jail for some time for felony. The boys will probably be taken in a few days.

—Born, to the wife of B. Campbell of South Third street today, a fine boy baby.

RHODES BURFORD DAY

The Handsome New Furniture Store Opened to the Public Today.

New Store Was Thronged with Many Pleased Callers All of Today.

OPENING CONTINUES TONIGHT

Rhodes Burford Co. threw open the doors of their new furniture store to the public today and welcomed Paducahans to the handsomest and best appointed retail furniture store in Kentucky—probably in the south.

It has been thronged with visitors all day and the exclamation of delight and amazement heard must have been pleasing to the management. The building is 20x125 feet and three stories high. Each floor contains 3625 square feet of space and with the beautiful array of fine goods on all sides present a pretty picture. The walls are tinted in green and are lined with pretty pictures and handsome hanging ornaments. The ceilings are done in green, also, and with the numerous plants artistically displayed help to carry out this pretty color scheme.

The store is complete in every appointment and, as Mr. H. C. Rhodes, the genial manager, says, can furnish your home complete, from cellar to garret. In the rear of the ground floor, to the right, is the stove department, in itself as large as the ordinary store. Here are found the famous Buck stoves and ranges and the new assortment is the largest in West Kentucky.

On the second floor is the carpet and draperies department, occupying a space 30x75 feet. The lines of carpets, rugs, curtains and draperies are the handsomest and largest in Paducah and are receiving much attention from the callers today.

The china and queensware department is on the first floor and is in keeping with the other excellent departments of this up-to-date house.

The display of furniture is a beautiful one. Mr. Rhodes goes direct to the biggest markets with the buyers from the other branches of the Rhodes-Burford mammoth organizations for his stock, and this season he purchased the highest priced and handsomest furniture on the floors of the best known makers. The bedroom suits, davenports, folding beds, sideboards and china closets especially are the "swellest of the swell" and require a look to really appreciate what they are. The demand for fine furniture in Paducah has grown wonderfully in the past two years and Rhodes-Burford have had much to do with it, and have the stock that will please the most fastidious in their new display.

Rhodes-Burford Co. in their two years business in Paducah have become so well known that their name is known in every household. Starting in a modest way in June, 1900, the business has grown to its present proportions in strenuous strides and the largest and prettiest retail store in Western Kentucky is the firm's proud boast, and the result.

The credit for the firm's standing in Paducah and the fine business done is due to the genius and work of Mr. Harry C. Rhodes, the popular manager. Mr. Rhodes has only been in Paducah since April, 1901 but, in that time has become one of the best known and most popular business men in the city. He believes in Paducah's great future and is ever in for anything to advance the city's interest.

The opening will continue tonight and tomorrow, all day and night. A good band of music will give a series of concerts and the management extends every one an invitation to call. Pretty souvenirs are given each lady and all are requested to get one.

FRIDAY'S FOOTBALL.

The Hopkinsville and Paducah football teams will play a match game in the city at the fair grounds next Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

EPIDEMIC OF SUICIDE

BELIEVED TO HAVE AFFECTED LIEUT. COMMANDER BRONAUGH.

New York, Oct. 1.—Lieut. Commander William V. Bronaugh of the United States navy committed suicide yesterday on the battleship Kearsarge at the navy yard by blowing out his brains with a revolver. Friends of Commander Bronaugh believe that he was very much worried over the manifold duties of his position as executive officer, which are considered to be more arduous than those of any other position of rank in the navy. Parnell P. Harrington, captain of the Brooklyn navy yard, said:

"There is an epidemic of suicide in the navy, as surely as there was ever an epidemic of fever. Such a thing may occur and can be explained. The man probably has been thinking of the other suicides, which are very sad affairs, and then in an unguarded moment the desire to try it seized him, and it was all over in a minute."

Commander Bronaugh was born in Kentucky and entered the naval academy in 1873.

PROMOTED TO INSPECTOR.

C. has been promoted to the office of supervisor of bridges and buildings of the Evansville district of the road with headquarters at Henderson, Ky. He is succeeded by A. G. Howerton, whose headquarters will hereafter be at Rockport, Ky. The change was effective today.

SHOOTING IN ARKANSAS.

Brinkley, Ark., Oct. 1.—About 4 o'clock this evening Tom Brammel of Wheatley, was shot and killed by Dennis Camp, an employe of McKnight's livery stable, in front of the stable. Marshal Perry A. Gillespie, who has just gone into T. J. Harris' saloon to see a party, heard the pistol shot in the direction of the stable, and immediately came out of the side door and saw Camp in the street with a pistol in his hand and Brammel just falling to the ground.

Camp stated to Marshal Gillespie that Brammel had run him out of the stable with a knife, and that he shot him.

MARRIAGES.

The marriage of Mr. Will Crow and Miss Lillian Haggard, as previously announced, took place at 10:30 o'clock this morning at the home of Mr. Joe Miller on South Sixth, and was a quiet, unostentatious affair, witnessed by only a few. Rev. G. W. Perryman officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Crow left at noon on their bridal tour.

C. W. Levan, aged 37, of the county and Sarah A. Hopkins of the county, aged 16, were this morning licensed to wed. It will make the second marriage of the groom and the first of the bride.

Mr. Robert P. Stewart, formerly of Greenfield, Tenn., but now of Fulton, and a popular Illinois Central fireman, was this afternoon married to Miss Deane Wilson at Rosine, Ky.

RAPID IMPROVEMENT IN SHIPBUILDING.

The rapidity of improvement in naval matters nowadays is shown by the fact that the English ships Harden and Centurion, built just nine years ago and much praised at the time, are now so obsolete that they are to be reconstructed at a cost of $500,000 each.

NEGRO TRAVELED WITH KING.

Bishop Derriek, one of the most prominent colored clergymen in this country, has just returned from an extended trip to Europe. While traveling in Italy the bishop and his wife rode from Venice to Milan, the only other occupants in the coach being the king of Greece and his suite.

PETITION IN BANKRUPTCY.

D. W. Jones, of Arlington, a railroad man, filed a petition in bankruptcy this morning giving liabilities to the amount of $450 with no assets.

GOLD MAN SELECTED

MICHIGAN DEMOCRATS CHOOSE L. T. DURAND FOR GOVERNOR.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 1.—After an animated discussion lasting nearly three hours the Democratic state central committee unanimously selected L. T. Durand of Saginaw as the party's candidate for governor. The new nomination was made necessary by the withdrawal of Judge George H. Durand of Flint, a brother of today's nominee. Judge Durand was stricken by paralysis five weeks ago. The fight today lay between the gold Democrats, who favored L. T. Durand, and the silver leaders, who wanted to nominate State Senator J. W. Helme of Adrian, Charles R. Sligh of Grand Rapids or some other Democrat who had come out as a silver man in 1896.

SALT TRUST NO MORE.

IT BECOMES HOPELESSLY INSOLVENT, ACCORDING TO STOCKHOLDER

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 1.—With a deficit of almost $300,000, the salt trust legally known as the National Salt company, and which was widely proclaimed in glib quarters at one time as International Trust No. 1, went to the wall today. Nathan Beardslee, of Warsaw, N. Y., and Frank P. McDermott were named by Chancellor Magie as receivers for the company.

The assets of the company when the last inventory was made, June 30, 1902, were $858,418, and the liabilities $1,150,136. Chauncey H. Strickland of New York city, who holds 360 shares of the preferred stock of the trust, applied for the appointment of the receivers, and in his petition he declares that the company is hopelessly insolvent.

SAYS HE WAS KIDNAPPED.

WOMAN APPEARS EXCITED AND STARTS OUT THE POLICE.

Mrs. Edith Jagger, of North Sixth street, appeared at the city hall this afternoon in a very excited state and said that her brother, Dave Sayre, age about 13, of Mechanicsburg, went to her home this afternoon and kidnapped her three year old daughter while she was away, disappearing with her. She wanted the police to assist her in finding the child, and Captain Henry Bailey detailed officers to make the search.

It seemed to be a family affair, but at press time the child had not been located.

TO KILL 60,000 DOGS.

Owing to an outbreak of rabies in Rhodesia the native commissioner met the indunas or native chiefs and explained the disease to them. They promised to destroy all dogs except favorites. This means the destruction of from 60,000 to 80,000 dogs. The government will destroy the hyenas.

It is stated that the three pirate vessels recently captured in the Persian Gulf near Koweit by H. M. S. Lapwing are to be sold for the benefit of the British seaman who was killed in the fight.

Ten thousand telegrams, including press messages which contained 55,000 words, were dispatched from Doncaster on St. Leger Day. After the races over 800 postal orders were issued at the postoffice.

Franks Played by Lightning.

The British steamer Myrtledene, at Philadelphia, from Middlesboro, England, with a cargo of pig iron, had, according to its skipper, Capt. Yule, a terrifying experience while crossing the Atlantic. All sorts of bad weather beat the ship, but the thing that will live longest in the memory of the crew will be the wild pranks that electricity played with it, the fire balls leaping all over the rigging and making the sailors believe the day of doom had arrived. Capt. Yule declared that not only did the fire balls play about the steamer, but they appeared shooting about the sea until the chief mate, who was on the bridge at the time, was confident that the ship was surrounded by a fleet of vessels. The Myrtledene is a steel screw vessel, schooner-rigged, and there was not a mast on which the electric balls of fire did not rest and plunge down. This occurred almost in midocean.

UMBRELLA THIEVES

TWO SMALL BOYS CAUGHT AND SENTENCED TO A WHIPPING.

Officer Hovious this morning after taking a prisoner to the city hall met two small boys, who ran when they saw him, but were overhauled. They had an umbrella apiece and said their mother dropped a five dollar bill and sent them to look for it, and made them take the umbrellas, although they didn't think it was going to rain. Owing to the hour, before daylight, Lieutenant Moore, when they were brought before him, suspected they were not telling the truth and sent for their mother, who said she was going to move and had sent them after her daughter. Instead they went on a foraging expedition.

Owing to their ages, 6 and 7 years, Lieutenant Moore agreed if the places from which the umbrellas were stolen were found and the property restored and the boys were given a sound whipping, he would release them, and it was promised.

One of the umbrellas proved to have been stolen from Dr. Otis at the sanitarium on Court street, and the other at Engineer Gillman's, 420 South Ninth.

THE WRONG MAN.

NEGRO ARRESTED HERE AND TAKEN TO MISSOURI NOT THE MAN WANTED.

The police have received information from the officers of Bonne Terre, Mo., who came here recently and took back a negro supposed to be Andrew O'Farrell, wanted there for murder, that he is the wrong negro. He claimed to be Lige Armstrong, of Memphis, and was willing to go back without a requisition, but the local officers, some of whom did not think he was the right man, insisted on a requisition.

He was the second man arrested here on suspicion of being the murderer.

Mrs. F. H. Hipple returned to her home in Madisonville, Ky., today after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Davis of Jefferson street.

AN EYE-OPENER.

DIDN'T BELIEVE IT POSSIBLE THAT COFFEE WAS AT WORK.

People often attribute their ill health to some indiscretion in eating, and change diet in the hope of recovering their wanted good health; finding no change for the better in their condition, they are at a loss for the cause, never for a moment thinking that the cup of coffee which they take in the morning is the true source from whence all their ills have come.

A lady in Philadelphia had her attention called to the pernicious working of coffee on the system by reading a little book on "How to Live." She says: "It was truly an eye-opener to me. All the many symptoms of the nervous stage under which I had been laboring so long were here directly traceable to coffee drinking. Especially was it shown to be responsible for the complete 'break-down' of my nervous system, which I had ascribed to many different causes, and which had become so great that my hands shook like that of a toper whenever I carried things to my mouth or reached out to grasp anything. I found myself subject to frequent spells of despondency and gloom, a feeling of emptiness, with constant sour erucation.

"Now, like every slave to an inordinate appetite, I was loath to believe that my favorite morning and mid-day beverage was the true cause of all this nervous wretchedness.

"Having noticed the advertisements of Postum Food Coffee, I determined to test it, and purchased a package and had some prepared carefully as directed. I enjoyed my first cup immensely, and Postum has been my favorite drink ever since, and that is a year and a half ago. I had barely used it a week when I realized a general 'tone-up' of my system. First, my appetite improved, next, I had no feeling of depression for days together, and a sensation of comfort, especially of my stomach, was noticeable. After a month I was aware that my hands no longer trembled, my nerves were improved, and this improvement continued until I entirely recovered my health.

"Whenever I learn of a case of nervous prostration, dyspepsia or stomach trouble among friends and others, I at once urge the abandonment of coffee as a beverage and the use of Postum in its stead, and have yet to learn of a single case in which it failed of its effects." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

THE RIVER NEWS.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 2.9 on the gauge, a rise of 0.4 in last 24 hours. Wind northeast, a light breeze. Weather cloudy and warmer. Rain fall in last 24 hours 0.14 inches. Temperature 62. Pell, Observer.

The Charleston left last night for Tennessee river.

Captain Joe Fowler is out again and able to be at his office.

The Richardson departed on time this morning for Cairo.

The Fannie Wallace went to the Tradewater Mines this morning.

The Clifton will be here tomorrow for the first time since the rise. She had been laying up at St. Louis.

The Butterff left at noon for Nashville with a good trip. This is her first trip into the Tennessee since the rise.

The Kenton hull was brought to the docks today to be repaired by new bracing. A new cabin will be built on her.

The Margaret will arrive today from Cairo to be, repaired preparatory to going into the tie trade for the Ayer and Lord people.

The Dudley will leave today for Evansville. She arrived last night many hours late on account of the water and good business.

The boat store people are doing an excellent business and can hardly attend to the trade. The boats are all stocking preparatory to going out.

The Harley arrived out of the Tennessee river this morning and will not make another trip this week. The City of Memphis, which is lying opposite the city on the north side of the island, will go out in her place.

This year about 600 less boats were shipped to New Orleans than last year. The culmination of the Boer war and the introduction of Texas oil in the southern market has cut in on the trade about 6000 coal-boats, or 600,000 tons of coal. The Teche country used coal almost exclusively. This is the planter region, and nearly all the planters are now using oil. The south African mules ships used between 300 and 400 coal-boats loads a year, and now that the war is at an end that trade is lost.

Next Monday the Pittsburg tow-boat pilots leave Pittsburg on an observation trip down the Ohio far as Cincinnati. The boat will leave early in the morning. The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company placed at the disposal of the pilots a houseboat fourteen feet wide and 60 feet long, in which the pilots will be quartered during their cruise. The houseboat will be towed by the steamer Harbor No. 25. The entire trip from Pittsburg to Cincinnati will be made in daylight. The following named pilots will leave: P. W. Boll, Frank Gilmore, G. B. Foreman, Rush Burnside, T. T. Dunlevy, E. V. Fowler, J. A. McDavid, D. L. McDonald, Jr. J. W. McDavid, L. M. Speer, William Blackstock, Frank Onip, James O. Wood Robert Houlden, S. M. Fowler, A. A PAPAL BULL.

EXHORTS THE CLERGY TO HOLD ALOOF FROM POLITICS.

Rome, Oct. 1.—A papal bull issued today on the subject of religious affairs in the Philippines concludes with inviting all the clergy to use their best endeavors to bring about the re-establishment of peace and order, helping with their influence the authorities working to the same end. The document at the same time exhorts clergy to hold aloof from politics and to devote their attention to religion and to promoting by every means the welfare of the people under the new regime.

BIGAMIST'S BREAK.

JUMPS FROM A TRAIN TO ESCAPE THE PENITENTIARY.

Memphis, Oct. 1.—S. J. Fleming, who was convicted of bigamy at Belen, Miss., where he married Miss Excie Burleyson while having a wife in Arkansas, while being carried to the penitentiary at Jackson, Miss., jumped from the closet window of the train. The train was running forty miles an hour and Fleming was picked up unconscious and taken to Jackson for treatment. Fleming was lumber agent for a Memphis house.

Mr. Joe Everich went to Princeton today on business.

RELIEF WORK SCANDAL.

WIDESPREAD DISSATISFACTION PREVAILS IN ST. VINCENT.

Kingston, St. Vincent, Oct. 1.—Widespread dissatisfaction prevails here in connection with the relief work on the island. A portion of the goods, clothing and other supplies contributed by the United States government for the assistance of sufferers from the eruptions has been sold under its value by the local government to merchants abroad, and the distribution of rations has been stopped and a state of semi-starvation prevails among some of the sufferers. An inadequate pittance of 25 cents weekly per adult is given to some of the people and some huts have been erected for the homeless, but they only measure eight feet by eight. Owing to the destruction of many of the estates a majority of the laborers are out of employment and the government officials have been dilatory in allotting lands for them to cultivate. The bulk of sufferers whose properties have been devastated are reduced to a state of poverty and have not been relieved. They are experiencing great privation, while over $200,000 of the relief fund is still at the disposal of the government. Representations on the ground of misadministration of the relief funds, etc., have been made to the colonial secretary, Mr. Chamberlain, who has commissioned A. M. Ashmore, the government secretary at Demarara, to proceed to St. Vincent in connection with the relief work.

UNUSUAL SUIT.

INDIANA FARMER OBJECTS TO BEING CURED.

Anderson, Ind., Oct. 1.—Because she had been administering to him without his knowledge a cure for the liquor habit, George W. Overshimer, a well known farmer, has sued his sister, Laura J. Hosier, for $5,000 damages.

Overshimer alleges in his complaint that his coffee had tasted rather queer for several weeks, but that he did not complain until his stomach gave him trouble and he began to rapidly lose flesh. Finally his sister, Mrs. Hosier, who cooked for him, told him of her experiment to rob him of any desire for liquor. He refused to agree with her idea and began legal action for redress. Mrs. Hosier owns a fine farm.

SWEEPING CHARGES

HENDERSON MINISTERS SPRING A SMALL SENSATION.

Henderson, Oct. 1.—The ministers of the Henderson churches sprung a sensation at a union service held at the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. P. H. King, president of the local Ministers' association and pastor of the Christian church, read a paper signed by all the ministers, in which they make sweeping charges in regard to gambling games alleged to have been operated on the fair grounds. No names are called, but it is strongly intimated that the games were conducted with the understanding that there should be no official interference.

SAVED THE TRAIN.

BUT THE SECTION FOREMAN LOST HIS LIFE.

Missoula, Mont., Oct. 1.—William Johnson, a section foreman, met his death by being struck by the engine of a Northern Pacific through passenger train while endeavoring to flag the train to save it from being wrecked. He discovered a broken rail but a few minutes before the passenger train was due. Johnson saved the train, but was hurled high into the air and into the ditch. He died two hours afterward aboard the train, which was hurrying for medical assistance. He leaves a widow and two children.

MISS ELEANOR GRAY,

President of the Woman's Art Association of

ST. AUGUSTINE, FLORIDA.

43 King Street, St. Augustine, Fla., Feb. 5, 1902.

I have not enjoyed good health for the past five years, and were it not for Wine of Cardui I would still be a sufferer today. I was troubled with profuse menstruation, was very irregular and often menstruated every three weeks instead of at the proper periods. Each time I would have severe cramps and bearing down pains with backache unfitting me for office work, and compelling me to lie down for several hours each day and sometimes the entire day. I used several remedies and spent hundreds of dollars trying to get relief, but all of no avail. Fortunately, one of your Ladies' Birthday Almanacs came into my hands and I became much interested, naturally hoping that it would cure me as it had cured others. I took my first dose that night and kept up the treatment religiously. My vitality, which had been well nigh spent by the heavy loss of blood, was gradually restored. I noticed a marked absence of pain at the next period, also a more natural flow. I kept up the treatment for four months and found to my joy that I was entirely well, and the functions of nature were performed naturally and easily. Wine of Cardui is certainly a grand medicine and gladly do I give it entire credit for my wonderful restoration to health.

Eleanor Gray

MISS GRAY took Wine of Cardui and stuck to it. That is what she means when she says she "kept up the treatment religiously". She is rid of her terrible suffering because she took this mild and simple remedy, because she did not put off the treatment. She did not take it a day or a week and then stop. She took Wine of Cardui and gave its curative qualities time to build up her weak parts, regulate her functions and cure the terrible pains in her back. And Wine of Cardui so used will never fail to benefit any case of female trouble however serious it may be. Wine of Cardui cannot restore dead organs, but it does cure menstrual troubles, which sap the body of its strength and result in back-breaking, bearing-down pains. Wine of Cardui is a simple vegetable remedy that has cured hundreds of thousands of women suffering from leucorrhoea, bearing-down pains and all the common menstrual disorders when they have taken it according to the directions on the bottle. If you will secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist and take a few doses of it every day you will have the same relief Miss Gray enjoys. Never let anyone sell you a substitute for Wine of Cardui.

BLACK ROCK

By RALPH CONNOR

"The bronchos are off with him. He's down at the rapids like enough."

"Let me go!" shouted Sandy, setting off at a run in the track of the sleigh. He had not gone far before he met Baptiste coming back with his team foaming, the reins going quietly, but the bronchos dancing and eager to be at it again.

"Voila! Bully boy! Tank the bon Dieu, Sandy. You not keel, eh? Ah, you are one grand chevalier!" exclaimed Baptiste, hauling Sandy in and thrusting the lines into his hands. And so they came back, the sleighbox still dragging behind, the pintos executing fantastic figures on their hind legs and Sandy holding them down. The little Frenchman struck a dramatic attitude and called out:

"Voila! What's the matter wiz Sandy, heh?"

The roar that answered set the bronchos off again plunging and kicking, and only when Baptiste got them by the heads could they be induced to stand long enough to allow Sandy to be proclaimed winner of the race. Several of the lumbermen sprang into the sleighbox with Sandy and Baptiste, among them Keefe, followed by Nelson, and the first part of the great day was over. Slavin could not understand the new order of things. That a great event like the four horse race should not be followed by drinks all round was to him at once disgusting and incomprehensible, and, realizing his defeat for the moment, he fell into the crowd and disappeared. But he left behind him his runners. He had not yet thrown up the game.

Mr. Craig meantime came to me and, looking after Sandy in his sleigh, with his frantic crowd of yelling admirers, said in a gloomy voice:

"Poor Sandy! He is easily caught, and Keefe has the devil's cunning."

"He won't touch Slavin's whisky today," I answered confidently.

"There'll be twenty bottles waiting him in the stable," he replied bitterly, "and I can't go following him up. He won't stand that. No man would. God help us all!"

I could hardly recognize myself, for I found in my heart an earnest echo to that prayer as I watched him go toward the crowd again, his face set in strong determination. He looked like the captain of a forlorn hope, and I was proud to be following him.

CHAPTER III.

WATERLOO—OUR FIGHT, HIS VICTORY.

THE sports were over, and there remained still an hour to be filled in before dinner. It was an hour full of danger to Craig's hopes of victory, for the men were wild with excitement and ready for the most reckless means of "slinging their dust." I could not but admire the skill with which Mr. Craig caught their attention.

"Gentlemen," he called out, "we've forgotten the judge of the great race. Three cheers for Mr. Connor!"

Two of the shanty men picked me up and hoisted me on to their shoulders while the cheers were given.

"Announce the Punch and Judy," he entreated me in a low voice.

I did so in a little speech and was forthwith borne aloft through the street to the booth, followed by the whole crowd, cheering like mad.

The excitement of the crowd caught me, and for an hour I squeaked and worked the wires of the immortal and unhappy family in a manner hitherto unapproached, by me at least. I was glad enough when Graeme came to tell me to send the men in to dinner. This Mr. Punch did in the most gracious manner, and again with cheers for Mr. Punch's master they trooped tumultuously into the tent.

We had only begun when Baptiste came in quietly, but hurriedly, and whispered to me:

"M'sieu Craig, he's gone to Slavin's and would lak you and M'sieu Graeme would follow quiek. Sandy, he's take one leel drink up at de stable, and he's go mad lak one diable."

I sent him for Graeme, who was presiding at dinner, and set off for Slavin's at a run. There I found Mr. Craig and Nelson holding Sandy, more than half drunk, back from Slavin, who, stripped to the shirt, was coolly waiting with a taunting smile.

"Let me go, Mr. Craig," Sandy was saying. "I am a good Presbyterian. He is a papist thief, and he has my money, and I will have it out of the soul of him."

"Let him go, preacher," sneered Slavin. "I'll cool him off for you. But you'd better hold him if you want his mug left on to him."

"Let him go!" Keefe was shouting. "Hands off!" Blaney was echoing. I pushed my way in. "What's up?" I cried.

"Mr. Connor," said Sandy solemnly, "it is a gentleman you are, though your name is against you, and I am a good Presbyterian, and I can give you the commandments and reasons annexed to them, but you's a thief, a papist thief, and I am justified in getting my money out of his soul."

"But," I remonstrated, "you won't get it in this way."

"He has my money," reiterated Sandy.

"He is a blank liar, and he's afraid to take it up," said Slavin in a low, cool tone.

With a roar Sandy broke away and rushed at him, but without moving from his tracks Slavin met him with a straight left hander and laid him flat.

"Hooray!" yelled Blaney. "Ireland forever!" and, seizing the iron poker, swung it around his head, crying, "Back, or, by holy Moses, I'll kill the first man that interferes wid the game!"

"Give it to him!" Keefe said savagely.

Sandy rose slowly, gazing round stupidly.

"He don't know what hit him," laughed Keefe.

This roused the highlander, and, saying, "I'll settle you afterward, Mr. Keefe," he rushed in again at Slavin. Again Slavin met him with his left, staggered him and before he fell took a step forward and delivered a terrific right hand blow on his jaw. Poor Sandy went down in a heap amid the yells of Blaney, Keefe and some others of the gang.

I was in despair when in came Baptiste and Graeme.

One look at Sandy, and Baptiste tore off his coat and cap, slammed them on the floor, danced on them and with a long drawn "Sap-r-r-r-rie!" rushed at Slavin.

But Graeme caught him by the back of the neck, saying, "Hold on, little man," and, turning to Slavin, pointed to Sandy, who was reviving under Nelson's care, and said, "What's this for?"

"Ask him," said Slavin insolently. "He knows."

"What is it, Nelson?"

Nelson explained that Sandy, after drinking some at the stable and a glass at the Black Rock hotel, had come down here with Keefe and the others, had lost his money and was accusing Slavin of robbing him.

"Did you furnish him with liquor?" said Graeme sternly.

"It is none of your business," replied Slavin, with an oath.

"I shall make it my business. It is not the first time my men have lost money in this saloon."

"You lie!" said Slavin, with deliberate emphasis.

"Slavin," said Graeme quietly, "it is a pity you said that, because, unless you apologize in one minute, I shall make you sorry."

"Apologize?" roared Slavin. "Apologize to you?" calling him a vile name.

Graeme grew white and said, even more slowly:

"Now you'll have to take it. No apology will do."

He slowly stripped off coat and vest.

Mr. Craig interposed, begging Graeme to let the matter pass.

"Surely it is not worth it."

"Mr. Craig," said Graeme, with an easy smile, "you don't understand. No man can call me that name and walk around afterward feeling well."

Then, turning to Slavin, he said:

"Now, if you want a minute's rest I can wait."

Slavin, with a curse, bid him come.

"Blaney," said Graeme sharply, "you get back." Blaney promptly stepped back to Keefe's side. "Nelson, you and Baptiste can see that they stay there."

The old man nodded and looked at Craig, who simply said:

"Do the best you can."

It was a good fight. Slavin had plenty of pluck and for a time forced the fighting, Graeme guarding easily and tapping him aggravatingly about the nose and eyes, drawing blood, but not disabling him. Gradually there came a look of fear into Slavin's eyes, and the beads stood upon his face. He had met his master.

"Now, Slavin, you're beginning to be sorry, and I am going to show you what you are made of."

Graeme made one or two lightning passes, struck Slavin one, two, three terrific blows and laid him quite flat and senseless.

Keefe and Blaney both sprang forward, but there was a savage kind of growl.

"Hold, there!" It was old man Nelson, looking along a pistol barrel. "You know me, Keefe," he said. "You won't do any murder this time."

Keefe turned green and yellow and staggered back, while Slavin slowly rose to his feet.

"Will you take some more?" said Graeme. "You haven't got much; but, mind, I have stopped playing with you. Put up your gun, Nelson. No one will interfere now."

Slavin hesitated, then rushed, but Graeme stepped to meet him, and we saw Slavin's heels in the air as he fell back upon his neck and shoulders and lay still, with his toes quivering.

"Bon!" yelled Baptiste. "Bully boy! Dat's de bon stuff! Dat's larn him one good lesson!" But immediately he shrieked, "Gar-r-r-e-e a vous!"

He was too late, for there was a crash of breaking glass, and Graeme fell to the floor with a long, deep cut on the side of his head. Keefe had hurled a bottle with all too sure an aim and had fled. I thought he was dead, but we carried him out, and in a few minutes he groaned, opened his eyes and sank again into insensibility.
